

Alumni Ambassador Hall of Fame Membership Requirements

(Adopted January 9, 1999)

The Alumni Ambassador Hall of Fame is to be comprised of people who have contributed in a substantial way to the growth, well being, or public image of Oklahoma Panhandle State University. A candidate may be an alumnus or non-alumnus and be elected into the hall as a member (alumnus) or honorary member (non-alumnus). A candidate may qualify regardless of sex, race, creed, denomination, or political party.

To be considered, a candidate must have made substantial contributions in one of the following ways:

- 1. outstanding support to the university through physical and/or mental contributions;
- 2. distinguished contributions and/or leadership within his/her profession;
- 3. distinguished contributions and/or leadership within his/her community, state, or nation.

A candidate must also:

- be a loyal supporter of Oklahoma Panhandle State University;
- have and maintain a high standard of unquestionable ethics and morals;
- be present at his/her initiation into the Alumni Ambassador Hall of Fame unless deceased or extenuating circumstances prevent attendance;
- not be a member of any subversive group to the United States of America;
- not be considered below the age of 35 unless it can be shown that he/she possesses exceptional qualifications.

The board of directors of the Panhandle State Association of Alumni and Friends has the sole power to deny membership into the Alumni Ambassador Hall of Fame should said candidate fail to meet the requirements set forth above. The board of directors also has the sole power to revoke membership should the member fail to maintain the standards.
