

Department of Homeland Security and the Oklahoma State Regents of Higher Education require “those who have an obligation and are trained to RESPOND TO, SUPPORT, or MANAGE Emergencies on your Campus” FEMA Goal 2010. The minimum level of NIMS training is IS 100 and 700. Please forward copies of your certifications to amber.glass@opsu.edu

1. Log onto <https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid> and the click on register for a FEMA SID. This will allow you to take the independent study exams. Once you have your FEMA SID,
2. Log onto <https://training.fema.gov/is>
3. In the search box, type IS-100 and take the course. Upon successful completion, you will receive an email with your certificate, please forward a copy of that to me, preferably as a pdf file.
4. In the search box, type IS-700 and take the course IS-700b. Upon successful completion, you will receive an email with your certificate, please forward a copy of that to me, preferably as a pdf file.

If you have completed any training with FEMA and do not have copies of your certificates, you can request copies by following the link below.

<https://training.fema.gov/emiweb/downloads/tranrqst1.pdf?d=10-26-2015>